

Sharing information between FAMILYSEARCH AND ANCESTRY

1 Click on the TREE ICON to see the drop down menu. 2 "Compare person on FamilySearch" first 3 EXCHANGE FACTS AND SOURCES by putting a check mark on the information to go over to the other side

After "Comparing the person on Family Search", you are ready to 4 "Add relatives from FamilySearch". You have to add them one at a time. 5-click on "Add immediate family member" and click 6 beside a name. 7 hit continue, 8 choose the child that matches then click 9 "Selected person is a match" or you could say "No match, add as new person". Then click 10 OK

If you have DUPLICATES 11 in your FamilySearch tree or maybe just other names that came up, you will have to IDENTIFY which one is your ancestor. Clicking beside each name brings up the information here. 12 It is a good idea to resolve duplicates in FamilySearch.

Below, click “Add an immediate family member.” 13 If you have more than one spouse, bring the 14 SPOUSES OVER FIRST. Then when you bring over the children, you can identify 15 WHICH SPOUSE IS CONNECTED TO THE CHILD. Then click on 16 SAVE

If this person is end of line, you can 17 add 4 more generations from FamilySearch.

At the bottom, a check mark by the tree 18 means ordinances are complete, 19 green arrow means Ordinances may be available, 20 blue lock means ordinances are in progress and the 21 white triangle means they need more information.

If you get a message that someone in your FamilySearch has been deleted, go to FamilySearch, make sure everything is OK. Copy down the PIN of the correct person in FamilySearch then go back into Ancestry and delete the wrong person (the deleted person) and insert the PIN of the correct person found in FamilySearch into Ancestry. Then you will be able to continue comparing and adding relatives.
